2nd EDITION

21-18 MAY 2018

The 1st edition of Experience Romania was a great succes, as the largest independent project that promotes Romania and its beauties: be it nature, traditions, culture or fun and adventure.

The project is brought to life by a team of volunteers passionate about their country, a team made of Travel Massive volunteers, local traveler influencers, and local organizations. Following the #ExperienceBucharest great success, 50 special guests, social media influencers from around the world, were invited last autumn to Experience Romania on a 2 weeks trip on Romania – Traditions and culture. Between 23rd of October – 5th of November our guests have traveled through Moldavia, Bucovina, eastern Transylvania and Prahova Valley. The trip got them closer to Romanian customs, exploring old fortresses, showing around ancient churches, whilst being surrounded by the natural beauty of Romania. And nevertheless, explore more urban sites as we get closer to Bucharest.

heleneinbetween Happy Halloween from Transylvania 🇷🇴🇷🇴 Today we participated in a Romanian wedding where we dressed in traditional folk wear and danced through the streets, drank various wines, and dined with the locals. We sang, we danced, we laughed. I think I've gained roughly 15 pounds since traveling Romania but the food is just TOO good. It's safe to say I'm charmed! #ExperienceRomania #heleneinbetween #heleneinromania heleneinbetween Travel buddy 🤗🤗 It's so rare to get to spend some time traveling together. I've been solo for the last few trips and being together makes traveling all the more fun.

The painted houses in Ciocănești Village look like brightly colored Easter eggs 🥰 And there just might be something to that. Each year, before Easter, the village hosts a painted egg festival!

It's truly a picture perfect town. Comment and tell me your travel buddy?

Bran Castle, Transylvania, Romania

heleneinbetween Searching for Dracula in Bran Castle 🏰👑 Of course, Dracula wasn't a real person but he's based off one Vlad the Impaler aka Vlad Dracula. This inspired the author of Dracula to name him this way and the castle fit perfectly in with the story. It's hard not to feel a spooky vibe upon entering it just before sunset as snow crunches under your feet, the pond frozen over, and black crows circle the tower. I think it's incredible how literature has helped transform our travel and led us to places we may not have explored. Is there a place based off a book or movie you'd love to visit? #heleneinbetween #ExperienceRomania #helenebandana #heleneinromania

of Romania was limited to stories of Dracula and communism. What I found was a very diverse landscape. Pictured is Sighisoara which reminded me of Heidelberg, Germany. Many of the mountains and villages looked like the alps of Austria and Switzerland. But one thing always stood out: the people instilled a feeling of joy that ignited my passion of this country even more. I will be back! #experienceromania #heleneinbetween #heleneinromania

Many people remember standing in line for hours to get the few provisions they need to live. I feel so fortunate to get to visit this country now and happy to see how far they've come. What to do in Sighisoara Romania – one of the best preserved fortified towns in Europe

Sighisoara is a medieval fortified town in the Mures County in Transylvania, Romania. It was proclaimed a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1999. Multiculturalism makes it even more interesting. Most of the 30,000 inhabitants are Saxons, Romanians and Hungarians. In this article I will tell you more about what to do in Sighisoara Romania, which according to many, is one of the best preserved fortified towns in Europe.

There's more than 140 fortified churches in the area. We are talking of churches with defensive walls around them. The fortified churches in villages are the most important attractions in Transylvania. Sighisoara is just one of many. The one I fell in love with is Sighisoara, not the richest nor the biggest of the 17 Saxon fortified towns in the area. However, its unique beauty still makes it one of the most visited destinations up to date.

Sighisoara consists of 2 parts: the Medieval one on top of the hill is called Sighisoara Citadel, while the lower part of Sighisoara lies in the valley of Târnava Mare river outside of the fortification walls.

Best places to Visit in Romania for Photography Lovers – City Edition

by Anamaria Strain 4 stars

Hello there! I'm Anamaria. Where I go, crazy things happen. Drowning in my goggles over the Great Barrier Reef, having a cruise ship sail away from me, swimming in a volcano. But I am still in one piece. And I've got crazy good travel tips for you despite (or because) of it. Join me for new adventures. Start here: #feetfollowheart

NET THE TRAVEL TALES

If you cannot get enough of the best places to visit in Romania and need a break from nature, then check out these Instagrammable cities! Call me nostalgic but the first two cities reminded me a lot of my home state. With its colorful houses and medieval cobblestone streets, both Sibiu and Sighisoara stood out as the best places to visit in Romania when it comes to city getaways.

This post contains affiliate links to tours. I personally love occasional tour travel as a solo traveller and if you decide to book a tour (I don't care how anything extra to use my links) I can use the small commission I get to keep this blog and to give love.

5 Recomandari pentru un weekend romantic in Sibiu in 2018

de Alina Prosecer - Februarie 22, 2018 - Romania, Sibiu, weekend in Romania

Se apropie Valentine's day si stiu ca multi dintre voi va doriti o experienta memorabila de cuplu, de aceea m-am gandit sa scriu acest ghid cu recomandari pentru un weekend romantic in Sibiu.

Putem considera Sibiu ca fiind un oraș romantic? Categoriile în definitiv romantismul este o chestiune foarte personala si subiectiva, un weekend romantic poti sa petreci oriunde atata timp cat ai persoana potrivita alaturi de tine, insa sarit cateva orase din Romania in care decorul favorizeaza cuplurile si astazi am sa va prezint aceste locuri din Sibiu pe care le puteti incerca oricand, daca aveti un weekend de neuitat cu persoana iubita.

20 October, 2017 by Lillana Kipper

„Bulgaria are de 5 ori mai mulți turiști străini față de România. Există potențial să creștem cu 300% numărul de turiști în următorii ani”

Peste o sută treizeci de ziariști, bloggeri, tour operatori și influenceri din turismul internațional sosesc începând de astăzi în România. Aceștia vor vizita și vor asigura expunerea în comunitățile internaționale a Bucureștiului și României timp de peste două săptămâni, prin intermediul proiectelor #Experience Romania și #Experience Bucharest.

#Experience Romania este o inițiativă privată, dezvoltată de voluntari, pentru a contribui la transformarea României în destinația turistică preferată din Europa de Est. La prima ediție, atracțiile turistice ale României vor fi promovate către o audiență internațională estimată la peste 100 de milioane de potențiali turiști.

Un grup de tineri voluntari implicați în diverse inițiative în domeniul turismului au lansat "Experience Bucharest" - un nou proiect de promovare turistică al Bucureștiului. Misiunea proiectului este aceea de a promova Capitala României ca destinația preferată din Europa de Est a turiștilor și călătorilor independenți. Evenimentul va avea loc în București în perioada 12-16 mai 2017.

Experience Bucharest este primul proiect voluntar al comunității Travel Massive România în care Bucureștiul este promovat la nivel mondial prin intermediul unui număr de 200 de persoane influente în domeniul călătorilor și turismului individual.

Până în prezent au confirmat participarea bloggeri, insașiageri, specialiști în comunicare pe Twitter, vloggeri naționali și internaționali jurnaliști de travel, persoane publice pasionate de călătorii, a căror activitate este urmărită de un număr de peste 10 milioane de oameni din lumea întreagă.

"Toți lucrăm voluntar în acest proiect. Cu un buget de sute de ori mai mic decât o campanie de reclame pe Eurosport, estimăm că vom avea un impact fantastic. Ne dorim să promovăm diversitatea experiențelor oferite de București către o audiență unică de minimum 10 milioane de oameni.", spune Tudor Maxim, inițiatorul și înținatoul Experience Bucharest

heleneinbetween Saying farewell to beautiful Romania. 🇷🇴
What a surprise to find a country that you not only appreciate but fall in love with. From the beautiful cities decorated with colorful homes to the incredible people who will open up their hearts and homes to you without question. Romania is a place I didn't know much about. I think that as I travel I learn more about everywhere I go, but my knowledge of Romania was limited to stories of

of Romania was limited to stories of Dracula and communism. What I found was a very diverse landscape. Pictured is Sighisoara which reminded me of Heidelberg, Germany. Many of the mountains and villages looked like the alps of Austria and Switzerland. But one thing always stood out: the people instilled a feeling of joy that ignited my passion of this country even more. I will be back! #experienceromania #heleneloveseurope #heleneinromania

Romania truly did blow me away, it is lovely and interesting. I do think it's worth the visit for sure.

Getting invited to travel in such a diverse and beautiful country like Romania would be an honor. I've really enjoyed your posts about Romania and you've made it harder for me to decide on what to see and do on my trip to Romania next year.

Haley:

I personally think Tudor, Anda, Raluca, and all of the other volunteers did a fantastic job, were excellent ambassadors of Romania, did their best to accommodate everyone Following along with you has added Romania to my list, not because of the pretty pictures, but because you showed a side of the country and its people that is more interesting than a photo! Thanks for keepin' it real, and actually putting the work in!

Then we arrive in Bucharest for Experience Bucharest! About 100 bloggers from all around the world diving into the story of the city in a swirl of constant networking, and a fair bit of reasonably priced food, and alarmingly cheap alcohol. I've got a new respect for this city. The energy in Bucharest, Romania is just palpable, and the people have a certain warmth, and a definitive strength.

Finally, it was two weeks exploring Romania with Experience Romania (First Edition)/ Experience Romania. What a whirlwind! We nearly saw half the country as we visited painted monasteries, rode steam trains, witnessed Romanian wedding traditions, learned about the customs of painting eggs in Bucovina, and ate more delicious Romanian food than I thought I ever would! We stopped in cities I adore like Brasov, Romania - Sibiu, Romania - Sighisoara, Romania - Targu Mures and many more. I learned a lot, but what I learned most is that it's the people you meet and connect with that really make a trip. So thankful travelingmitch Every time I revisit the photos I snapped in Romania, I can't help but find another that I want to share with you all. The response I've had from my Romania photography has been incredible, and I think in some ways I want to keep that train going, so I continue to dip back in. And yet, in other ways, I think my Romania photos speak for themselves, besides how I feel about them or my intentions. Especially in North America, there isn't necessary a tourist fascination with Romania, but it's clear there should be. My only hope is to challenge that assumption, to prove it's worth visiting - one photo at a time. I feel incredibly lucky to have spent so long in this nation.
